In this meet he carried off all the honors in the surint races, but when it came to putting the weights he had to take second place to the Yale man, who won out by a narrow margin. Mr. Milne is more than an athletic instructor—he is a thorough student of physiology and in all his work he follows the latest scientific methods. He is an expert on spine work and while in Sait Lake will do some hospital work along this line. In Mr. Milne the Saints have secured a good man, and next year they ought to make a very creditable showing in athletics.

Gardner Begins Work for Fight

O'Keefe and Stift Also Begin Their First Training for Their

O'Keefe and Stift Training

O'Keefe and Billy Stift also began their first training yesterday at the same place. Stift is matched to meet George Gardner at Ogden on June 19, and he and O'Keefe wil They confidently expect to make things go fast for the Gardner brothers in their two coming matches. Stift is a fighter with a record. Before his fierce righ ich men as "Mysterious" Billy Smith, Marvin Hart and Mike Schreck have gone down decision over him in a six-round go. George Gardner will arrive in a day or so from Chi-cago, where he has been resting up since his fight with Schreck.

Gardner Old Fighter.

The fight between O'Reefe and Jimmy Gardner comes first, and consequently it is a ropic frequently discussed just now. Jimmy Gardner has been a fighter all his life. At 15 he entered the ring, and since that time he has fought satis-five battles of which he has won fitty-five. He has never been knocked out, nor has he ever lost a decision. Among the men whom he has knocked out are Huddy Ryan. George Memsic. Charley Seager, Willie Fitgerald and Mike Ward.

Expect to Win Contest.

Expect to Win Contest.

Jimmy and his manager, Gibson, confidently expect to win the coming battle, and in this event a go with "Battling" Neison is practically assured. Billy Nolard Bat's manager, has already made Garciner an offer of 13 ringside if he wise this match. Jimmy will probably have trouble in making this low weight, but he thinks he can do it in this alittude, and he will take a chance. If a match is arranged, whether between O'Keefe and Nelson, it would certainly be a big drawing card. O'Keefe is no second-rater in the fighting game. He has met and fought Britt to a standstill, and most of those who have faced him in the padded ring have received rather tough treatment. He is a husky boy, with a good strong neck and a pair of arms that work like battering rams. When he and Gardner meet it will certainly be a contest royal.

VICTORY FOR CHICAGO.

Has 56 Points, Against 38 for Michigan in Track Meet.

CHICAGO June 2.—The intercollegiate coference track and field meet on Marshall field today not only turned out a brilliant victory for Chicago, but set some new records for conference events and added several feet to the world's best previous discus throw. Chi-cago had 55 points, Michigan, 28, and Iowa eago had 36 points, Michigan, 28, and Iowa and Purdue were tied for third place with 7.1-3 points.

Lightbody of Chicago was the star of the occasion. He won the one-mile event easily, incidentally lowering the conference record from 1.31.2-5 to 4.25. Then, without apparent effort, he clipped 1.2-5 seconds from the half-mile record, making it in 1.57.2-8.

In the two-mile there was a sensation, F. A. Rowe, hotly and closely pursued by his schoolmate. Stone, and by Lyon of Chicago winning out in 9.36. This time is 12.2-5 seconds faster than the previous record, made by Kellogs of Michigan, two years ago.

E. C. Glotes of Purdue and R. V. Norris of Rimols tacked three-eighths of an inch on to Dyorak's record-breaking nerformance in the pole-cault clearing the bar at 11 feet 3½ inches.

FITZ AND HIS MENAGERIE HERE

His Arrival Makes Set Complete.

Today Is the Ex-Champion's Birthday; He Is 43 Years Old.

Visits the Lagoon.

Once in towa, Fitz hurried to the Ken-yon hotel, where he disposed of his bag-gage and enjoyed a Salt Lake lemonade. After lunch Robert, accompanied by Wil-lard Bean and several others, hurried to Lagoon, where the "red-topped" one is thinking of locating his camp. Fitz is very desirous of getting through with all these preliminary details in a hurry, for he dislikes them.

being a grandfather. I am only 43 years old; tomorrow, by the way, is my birthday. Now all this talk about my being an octogenarian is nonsense, and I will convince every one of this who attends my fight with Shreck."

Up Against a Good Man.

"I understand that I am up against a good man in Schreck, for you know it takes a good man to put Gardner away. I have never seen him fight, and to tell again him takes a good man to put Gardner away. I have never seen him fight, and to tell you the truth. I have only seen him once or twice in my life. Yet I hear that he has a curious fighting style of his own and for that reason I am anxious to try conclusions with him. I am strong, my hands are in fine shape, and I am in every way ready to fight like the champion that defeated Corbett and made things lively for Jeffries.

Long Chain of Battles.

here in a couple of days. My wife could not accompany me on this trip, as she leaves shortly for Paris, where she wilt spend the next twelve months completing her musical education.

His Lion a Monster.

His Lion a Monster.

The pet lion of the lanky Cornishman is thirteen months old, weighs 200 pounds and can do any number of tricks. To "Bob" the animal is worth its weight in gold, almost, for he has trained it and fondled it until it appears to him as a companion. Among other things that he does to show that the "big pussy" is thoroughly domesticated, is to give it a piece of raw meat and then take it away from between the lion's jaws. In speaking of his pets yesterday. Fitzsimmons said:

Has Lion With Him.

Has Lion With Him.

"Some of you fellows do certainly getthings mixed up. As an example, let me' tell you that the Chicago papers have spread the report that I recently gave my lion to the Chicago zoo, but don't you believe it. I did let Cy DeFry, head animal-keeper at Lincoln park, care for him a few weeks, but I only loaned him. He'sdewn to the Rio Grande depot now, but as soon as I get my quarters picked out
I will have him helping me in my daily training stunts."

Drinks Lemonade Only.

Drinks Lemonade Only.

As "Bob" finished telling about his iten As "Bob" finished telling about his lion, some one came along who had known the lanky one years ago, and the conversation changed. "Say, fellows," said Fitz, "let's all go and have one I don't take anything stronger than lemonade, but Filbuy a round or two for the rest of the bunch. On the square I believe you look thirsty." The drinks were ordered and as Fitz sipped his lemonade he told all hands about a thousand-dollar dog he had with him.

Has Fine Dog.

"Got the finest dog, in the United States," said Fitz. "Paid a thousand for him in Paris and then had to dig up three hundred to get him into the States. These scalines come high, but we must have them."

When some one interrupted the conversation with a request to see the $10,000 heauty, Fitz stepped into the Kenyon, where he is stopping, and brought forth the homiliest, most ungainly looking dog you ever saw.

Not Very Pretty.

Not Very Pretty.

'He isn't very pretty I'll admit," said "Rob" as the animal jumped up and licked his master's band, "but he is well bred and no mistake.

News From Home.

"You fellows will have to excuse me." said the originator of the solar plexus blow, "while I peruse a letter from Mrs. Fitz," and without waiting an instant he walked into the hotel and sat down to read the news from home. It was evidently filled with words of good cheer, for the "old man" smiled as he finished the epistle.

The sporting editor of The Tribune yesterday received the following from Billy Hogan, manager of Mike Schreck. "Mike Schreck and I, accompanied by Johnny Hogan as sparring pariner, will leave for Sait Lake City on June 3 and start training right away for the fight with Fitz." News From Home.

Fierce Fight on Diamond Assured.

The Sait Lake Hardware Lacebal team will meet the Draper Invingibles at Walker's field on June 10. In a hard-fought conjust between these two teams on Decoration day the Draper reggregation won out by the close score of 2 for 2, but the Hardware hustlers have been working hard since and ruedict a different story for the coming contest. The batteries for the Hardware will be Barber and Bishop, for Duster, Sovenzo 1 and Resnuszep.
